Dear Ms. Warmuth,

As discussed, to the extent your client wishes to participate in the hearing on the Inter-Account Issue Motion, please go ahead and we will ensure that his claim objection is added to the revised exhibit that is submitted to the Court for filing along with the Court's order.

Regards,

Bik

Subject: Re: Inter-Account Transfer Motion

Dear Mr. Cheema:

I reviewed your declaration in support of the trustee's motion regarding the inter-account transfers. I do not see my client listed in exhibit 1. My client is Michael Most claim no. 002158. Objections to the trustee's determination of claim were filed February 8, 2010 docket no. 1873. The objections raise the inter-account transfer issue. A copy of the objections are attached. My firm was substituted in the place of Helen Chaitman. If you need to see the consent to change attorney and notice of appearance, let me know. They are filed under docket nos. 5056 and 5057. Please let me know why my client is not listed in exhibit 1.
